

I opppose the weakening of Indiana's law about banks being able to contact the consumer via telephone just because they do business with me.

I enjoy my privacy and use of my phone for telemarketing is an invasion of that privacy.

Thank you for maintaining that privacy and allowing me to eat supper or watch tv without the telemarketing that used to be so rampant!